Shift Employees Now May Obtain UT Survey Form

Blanks Are Available At Shift Supervisors' Office In Dispensary

Survey forms for Y-12 employes working shifts other than straight day and who are interested in taking advantage of the University of Tennessee Extension Service offer of college credit courses during their off hours now are being made available through the Y-12 Plant Shift Supervisors office in the Dispensary building on First St. This point of distribution will make it more convenient for interested Y-12ers working shifts other than straight day to obtain the survey forms with their explanation of the university pro-

May Get Degree Credits
University authorities have announced the new program will enable shift employees to study courses with credit on degrees in engineering and business admin-istration. The plan involves double sessions of classes whereby material presented at a morning session is repeated at an evening class. The shift employee can attend either class, depending on his work schedule.

In the survey now available to Y-12 shift employees, it is pointed out that classes tentatively are set for 9 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9:50 p.m. The classes would meet once a week for 10 weeks, the length of time required to complete one quarter of university work. Arrangements also can be made for courses involving laboratories, such as chemistry and mechanical engineering.

Asked To Check Courses Wanted
The survey forms for Y-12ers ask them to check courses they would be interested in taking. The check, of course, is not a commitment on the part of the 7-12 employee or the university but merely an approach to help the university to ascertain what courses are desired. Some of the courses suggested are mathematics refresher, beginning enchemistry, machine shop, engineering drawing, slide rule, business law and accounting. Shift employees interested in other courses are asked to make their courses are asked to make their suggestions.

Considerable interest already is reported by Y-12 shift employees in the program. The number of classes and subjects to be selected, of course, depend on the response to the survey. Tentative plans call for class work to begin shortly after January 1.

Old 'Spanish Swindle' Game Fails To Nab Y-12ers In Net

Maybe they are getting some nibbles from unsophisticated souls not yet disillusioned by numerous warnings-but perpetrators of the old "Spanish Swindle" aren't getting any play from Y-12ers on their "sucker lists."

The threadbare "confidence game" in which a letter writer from some far away place - usually Mexico—promises to share some hidden loot with a benefactor willing to bail the writer out of Husbands At Party Tonicht dire troubles has been going on for a long time, and within the past two weeks a pair of Y-12ers have received such messages. They were identical in form, making the same appeal, typewritten with the same style and errors and even bearing the same typewritten signature.

The Y-12ers receiving the letters both have asked that their names not be used in connection names not be used in connection with the business—so The Bulletin is granting their wishes. Naturally they don't want to be automatically placed on the "one is born every minute" list. Both turned over their letters to the Y-12 Security Department, which in turn sent the missives to United States postal authorities, since the Security Department has no jurisdiction in such matters.

Here's how "Senor Zacarias Mendez, Bahia Magdalena 148-7, Mexico, 17, D.F." approached the gentle matter of endeavoring to put the bite on the Y-12ers-

Spirit Of Christmas Will Bring Parties For Adults, Youngsters; Carols, Tree To Stress Holidays

Today Is Deadline For Filing Applications For Tickets To Children's Entertainment; Dexter's Band To Play For Dance On Friday

Christmas spirit is reaching a high pitch in Y-12 as all plant employees are winding up pre-Christmas party plans for themselves and their youngsters. The usual last minute ticket rush was expected to get underway before the annual Y-12 Dance Party which is scheduled for Friday night, December 18, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the Oak Terrace ballroom and the five children's Christmas Parties at the Oak Ridge High School auditorium and the Gamble Valley School next Monday and Tuesday, December 21 and 22.

Today, Wednesday, December 16, is the deadline for sending in applications for tickets to the various children's parties. The application blanks have been published in The Bulletin for the past few weeks and additional blanks may be obtained at the newspaper office, North Portal, for any late comers.

Each of the parties for the chil-dren will be identical, with a show that is going to be a big surprise for everyone attending, plus a visit from Santa Claus to all the kiddies. Each child will receive a Christmas stocking filled with gifts and several cartoon movies will be shown to the various groups.

Employees To Hear Music

There will be Christmas music in the air for all employees at the plant beginning next Monday, December 21, and a large lighted Christmas tree with all of the trimmings will adorn the entrance at the North Portal, according to plans made by the Recreation Office. The tree is expected to be erected within the next few days.

Advance ticket sales indicate the big Y-12 Dance Party will be another huge affair. Tickets can be had for $1 and will be on sale throughout the plant through Friday, December 18, at the following places:

The Christmas dinner in Y-12 is expected to draw even more customers to the cafeteria than the throngs that filled the big hall for the Thanksgiving dinner. At that time 1,350 entire dinners were sold at which Y-12ers consumed around 750 pounds of turkey, 900 glasses of fruit juice, 1,224 servings of salad, 1,500 slices of pie, 63 pans of candied yams and proportionate amounts of other items.

Light Slate Ahead For Y-12 Basketeers; Robins Win Three Of First Four Contests

Girls Pile Up Big Scores In Initial Victories; Cards Drop Opener In Tourney By Slim Edge

With the Christmas holidays just around the corner a light schedule faces the two Y-12 varsity basketball teams within the next few days.

The only definite encounter scheduled for the Robins at press time of The Bulletin is slated for tonight, Wednesday, December 16, at 7:30 p.m. against the American®

Legionettes at the Oak Ridge High School gymnasium.

Cards Have Two Tilts Set

The Cardinals have an engagement for Friday, December 18, at 8 p.m. against the Oakdale Y.M.-C.A. and a tentative game has been arranged with the Sunbright Independents for Tuesday, December 22, at 7 p.m., both games set for the Oak Ridge High School gymnasium.

The Y-12 women got off to a fine start in the Oak Ridge City League last week as they scored a resounding 80 to 2 win over the hapless Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies lassies. The 80point total was one of the highest scores ever piled up by a Y-12 team, or any other Oak Ridge women's cage outfit for that matter. The Y-12ers counted 24 markers in the first quarter and continued to hit the basket from all angles throughout the game. Ruby O'Kain tallied 20 points and Nell McGinnis got 17 to lead the scoring parade for Y-12. A superlative defensive game was turned in by the Y-12 lassies as the ORINS team collected only two points during the contest, both from the free throw line.

Robins Trounce Knoxvillians

Manager Bill Stanton's lassies also turned in another sweet victory last week by a 53 to 9 margin over Levi-Strauss in the Milk Fund Tournament which is being held in Knoxville at Chilhowee Park gymnasium. The Y-12 women were never in trouble in the tussle with Levi-Strauss as they again racked up 24 points in the first quarter and coasted to an easy victory. Nell McGinnis scored 16 points in this one. McGinnis Ruby O'Kain elen "Chigger" was followed by Ru with 14 and Helen Brown chalked up 13.

Again demonstrating their superiority over Knoxville teams in the tournament, the Robins handily trounced the General Hospital nurses by 44 to 24. Brown and O'Kain each tallied 14 points in this scrap. By that victory the Y-12ers won their way to the finals, set for Monday night of this week with the K-25 Bluebelles as their opponents.

NBC Hands Y-12 First Loss

The Robins lost their initial game of the season Sunday night when they dropped a 53 to 47 decision to the strong Nashville Business College team. The Nashville team had lost several of their world championship team of last season, but still had a potent outfit, headed by a six-foot, five-inch forward named Spears, who scored 26 points to almost single-handedly trim the Robins' wings. The Robins kept in shoot-Riders Wanted—To New York ing distance all the way and ac-City, leaving December 24. J. T. Nicholson, plant telephone 7332. In the third period, only to have Miss Spears drop some more baskets in over their heads. O'Kain led the Robins with 18 points and Brown got 12 with Nell McGinnis having six and Lois Secrist six counters.

In a Saturday night game, NBC beat the K-25 women by 41 to 27. The Y-12 men did not fare so well in the Knoxville Milk Fund tourney as the Big Red took a 41 to 36 beating at the hands of CIO Local No. 90. The lads of Manager Carl Sanders played a good game but were not hitting the basket consistently. The Cards are determined to make a better showing at their next outing and with more practice and conditioning the Y-12 men will be hard to handle.

Cards In Metro League The Cardinals will play in the Knoxville Metro League this season. The Metro League is set to begin play at Chilhowee Park gymnasium on January games scheduled for Monday and Tuesday of each week.

Wheels Tie Rams For Mixed Lead

The Wheels moved into a first place tie in the Mixed League last week with the Rams by splitting four points with the Papis while the cellar dwelling Pin Balls really pulled an upset by blanking the previous loop leading Rams. The Spotters continued to show improvement by whitewashing the Cards while the Ponies galloped off with a three-point win over the Hubs.

The Papis hogged the spotlight in team scoring by rolling a 648 scratch game, boosted to 800 with handicap, going on to mark up a 1745 scratch series, increased to 2201 with handicap. ANNETTE PARSON, OF THE Y-12 FIRE PREVENTION AND CONTROL DEPARTMENT, shows the proper method of handling Christmas trees to avoid fire hazards. At left she places her tree in a cool part of the room and mounts it in a tub into which she pours water to keep the tree moist and reduce chances of fire. In the center picture Annette closely inspects light wiring to see that no wires are frayed and that connections are safe. The lights then may safely be placed on the tree. At right after unwrapping gifts to be displayed under the tree Annette carefully disposes of surplus wrapping paper and trash to eliminate another fire hazard.

I am in prison sentenced for bank-ruptcy, and I wish to know if you are willing to help me save the sum of $450,000.00 U. S. Cy. Part of Said Sum.-Of course, the gimmick is that if the seed of greed falls on fertile ground, the "sucker" is lured to Mexico, bled of every possible cent in the form of "expenses" and in possible threats before the swindle is actually revealed. Naturally, the victim doesn't want to appeal to authorities after being made the "fall guy" of such scheme-so it is difficult to ascertain just how many persons have been defrauded by this method. Apparently a sufficient number have succumbed to the hope of horning in on the fabulous pots of gold dangled before them as the "con" men continue to send out feelers.

However, if anyone in Y-12 receives one of the letters in the future it is urged that the matter be turned over to postal authorities—after the laughs have been extracted from the situation. Maybe the writers are too slick to be apprehended—but putting the law on their trail might bring results after all.
